This conference will support you as a health care educator. Learn about the latest developments in this field, share good practice through facilitated discussions and network with colleagues from across the globe.

- Hear from eminent keynote speakers on current nursing issues. Reflect on how these will impact on your practice.
- Discover the work of your contemporaries in the academic and practice setting. Learn new approaches and return to your workplace stimulated with new ideas to share.
- Exchange ideas in a supportive environment and build professional relationships.

By participating you will discover how to deliver a better quality learning experience, advocate for and help influence the future of nursing education and practice.
